

Inventory Bevin Boys Association

Box 3 191/3

R H Griffiths The Forgotten Army

The Bevin Boys in the South Wales Coalfield 1943-48 Dissertation for MA

Interviews with James Adams 16/12/24 John Baguely 2/11/24 Russell Bluit 22/12/24

David Grenfell The youngest and strongest men in the industry.

In 41 40% of miners over 40

Mentions 6 clothing coupons for helmets and boots

First time there had been a training scheme so it did lead to a decrease in accidents and deaths in the coal mining industry

Experienced miners would draw pay for himself and the boy under him and he would pay the boy.

Photo 45

Folder- material relating to the Bevin Boy Scheme Item 2834

Midlands Region allocation for Ballotees, optants and volunteers. Dec 43- July 47

The Coalming Ballot. Experiences of conscripted Servicemen

The Bevin Boys by Sally McCormack. Oral History Project. OU

Mentions – often landladies didn't give them enough to eat.

Of 900 collieries only 362 had pit baths

Gerry Moore Eric Martin Bevin Boys Killed.

Article -Why did the Bevin Boys fail to gain recognition for their role in WW2? Sarah Boden
BA Hons

The Forgotten Army of the Mines

The Community, citizenship and remembrance of the Bevin Boys.g

